

I do not want Indiana's no call list to be modified to allow solicitation calls from organizations or business that I have done business. Make them leave me alone. The charitable exemption is a pain in the ass, these people are calling during my only at home family time.

Roger Miller